

Stage 2: Practical Build Assessment

How I used AI:

- Used Gemini to understand Angular project structure.
- Used Gemini to brainstorm implementation approaches.
- Verified all generated code manually.
- Tested functionality locally.
- Corrected several implementation details after review.
- Rejected broader feature suggestions such as map visualization and large-scale dashboard functionality because they would significantly increase scope and implementation risk.